Group Singing: A Positive Intervention in the Lives of People with Parkinson's.

„Since Singing Is so Good a Thing, I Wish All Men Would Learn to Sing“ (William Byrd, 1543–1623)

Grenville Hancox – Musician, Music-Educator, Professor Emeritus Canterbury Christ Church University, Honorary Professor of Music and Health University of Kent (GB) will argue, advocate and implore that we engage with group singing as an intervention in the development and maintenance of well being. The workshop will demonstrate the power of group singing as an intervention for People with Parkinsons's.

Parkinson-Patient/innen sind zur Teilnahme herzlich eingeladen. Es wird viel gesungen!
